

6 QUESTIONS TO ASK THE CAMPUS DISABILITY OFFICE

How many staff (full-time, part-time, peer mentors) are in the Disability Office?

Are there deadlines or important dates that students need to know in order to request accommodations (for classroom or testing purposes)?

Does the Disability Office offer fee-based systems of tiered supports (such as academic coaching (for students with ADD), executive functioning support, autism social supports, etc.)?

What is the college's process for requesting accommodations? Can students complete the process online or do students need to visit the Disability Office in person? How are faculty notified of student accommodations, online or in person?

What methods does the Disability Office use to communicate with students? Email, text, college online learning management system (such as Blackboard, Moodle rooms, Starfish, etc.)?

Does the Disability Office have a FERPA release form that is available to students who wish to waive their rights of confidentiality thus allowing parents to communicate with disability office staff regarding their student?
